

Subjects and Learning Goals

On the Way Together is an interdisciplinary teaching programme designed primarily for Social Studies, Geography, English and History. The programme can be used as a stand-alone teaching resource, an interdisciplinary project, or as a thematic unit about the Kingdom of Denmark.

Social Studies

- Identity, culture and community
- Democracy and citizenship
- Social and cultural conditions in Greenland, the Faroe Islands and Denmark

Geography

- Natural environments and living conditions
- Climate and climate change
- The relationship between people and nature

English

- Reading factual and personal texts
- Oral communication and dialogue
- Written reflection and communication

History

- The historical development of the Kingdom of Denmark
- Historical perspectives on the relationships between Greenland, the Faroe Islands and Denmark

Students work with:

- Inquiry and reflection
- Communication and collaboration
- Critical thinking and perspective-taking
- Democracy, citizenship and global understanding